CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalm 36:5-8)

Dr. Gaylord French

Your loving-kindness, O Lord, reaches to the heavens,

and your faithfulness to the clouds.

Your righteousness is strong as the mountains,

and your judgments vast as the deeps.

You, Lord, save human being and beast;

how priceless is your love, O God!

We take refuge under the shadow of your wings;

we feast on the rich abundance of your house.

HYMN #138 (Hymnal)*      “Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!”

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (In Unison)*

O God, our Heavenly Father: you created the heavens and the earth, making everything good, even glorious. Jesus Christ, our Savior: you have made us your brothers and sisters and commissioned us to bear your name into the world. Holy Spirit, our Comforter and guide: you enlighten us with wisdom to know what is right. Give us humility to make this confession: we have been poor stewards of the earth, clumsy and spiritless disciples, unjust in our dealings with others, divided in our witness and devotion to you. Forgive us, holy God. By your grace and power make each one of us a new creation who do what is pleasing in your sight. Amen.

COMMISSIONING OF THE GUATEMALA MISSION TEAM

As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

Lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

There is one body and one Spirit, just as we were called to the one hope of our calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

We are called by God to be the church of Jesus Christ, a sign in the world today of what God intends for all humankind.

The great ends of the church are the proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind; the shelter, nurture, and spiritual fellowship of the children of God; the maintenance of divine worship; the preservation of the truth; the promotion of social righteousness; and the exhibition of the Kingdom of Heaven to the world.

The call of Christ is to willing, dedicated discipleship. Our discipleship is a manifestation of the new life we enter through baptism. Discipleship is both a gift and a commitment, an offering and a responsibility.

George Conley and Zachary Conley, the grace bestowed on you in baptism is sufficient for your calling because it is God's grace. By God's grace we are saved, and enabled to grow in the faith and to commit our lives in ways that serve Christ. God has called you to particular service. Show your purpose by answering these questions.

Who is your Lord and Savior?

Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior.

Will you be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his Word and showing his love?

I will, with God's help.

Do you welcome the responsibility of this service because you are determined to follow the Lord Jesus, to love your neighbors, and to work for the reconciling of the world?

I do.

Will you serve the people with energy, intelligence, imagination, and love, relying on God's mercy and rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit?

I will, with God's help.

Do the members of the First Presbyterian Church, confirm the call of God to George and Zachary as mission workers in the service of Jesus Christ?

We do.

Will we support and encourage them in this ministry?

We will.

COMMISSIONING PRAYER

Faithful God, in baptism you claimed us, and by your Holy Spirit you are working in our lives, empowering us to live a life worthy of our calling. We thank you for leading these volunteers to this time and place. Establish them in your truth, and guide them by your Holy Spirit, that in your service they may grow in faith, hope and love, and be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and forever.

Almighty God, in Jesus Christ you called disciples and, by the Holy Spirit, made them one church to serve you. Let your Spirit rule your church, so that we may be joined in love and service to Jesus Christ, who, having gone before us, is coming to meet us in the promise of your kingdom. Amen.

CHARGE

George Conley and Zachary Conley, you are commissioned to serve as mission volunteers. Whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God through him.

BLESSING

May the God of peace make you holy in every way, and keep your whole being, spirit, soul, and body, free from every fault at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

~~ CPNS ~~

We are busy planning our summer program, look for more details next week.

We have a few spots left for the 2011-2012 school year. Please call Janice Parker at (609)655-8663 or email her at CPNSchool@comcast.net for more information. Don't forget to tell your friends and neighbors.

~~ DEACONS ~~

A HUGE THANK YOU...The Board of Deacons would like to thank everyone who volunteered and attended this year's Strawberry Festival. It was a huge success. The festival is a very large undertaking and would not run well without the help of this congregation. The Deacons' Benevolence Fund has increased by approximately $3,000. Thank you, everyone!

~~ MISSION, SERVICE & GRANTS ~~

SNIPPETS FROM THE YEAR BOOK OF PRAYER: First Presbyterian Church in Fort Dodge, Iowa, has an interesting ministry. A group of volunteers operate a wheelchair repair shop that is one of nine satellite repair shops of the nonprofit Hope Haven International Ministries in northwest Iowa. Donated chairs, mostly in disrepair, are disassembled, cleaned, and disinfected. Worn parts, tires, and tubes are replaced, bearings greased, and parts repainted before the chair is reassembled. This service has been going on for six years and has resulted in 710 rejuvenated chairs! The chairs are returned to Hope Haven for distribution overseas to children and adults with pastors, priests and/or missionaries determining chair recipients. Usually a shipment is accompanied by twelve volunteers who fit the chair to meet a recipient's needs. Sometimes a group includes a medical doctor and translator. Since 1994, Hope Haven has sent 85,168 chairs to 105 countries around the world.

NEWS OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS: One of the goals of BREAD FOR THE WORLD'S recent Offering of Letters in which many of you participated is to ensure that the improvements in foreign aid now under way translate into improvements in the lives of poor people in developing countries. And this means that local people must be involved in decisions. Development programs need to consider in the light of how women are affected by them for two reasons: the majority of poor people are women (70 percent by some estimates) and women play a critical role in the health and well-being of their families. An integral part of reducing hunger is improving the productivity of female farmers in developing countries. Research indicates that women are more likely to use any additional resources they get for more nutritious foods and other items that benefit their children. An agricultural program in Nigeria improved its effectiveness when they noted that women produce two-thirds of the country's food crops but have little access to agricultural extension services. The agriculture ministry created Women in Agriculture initiatives that were incorporated into existing agricultural extension services. This step not only doubled the number of female extension agents and tripled the number of women in contact with extension services but raised local women's standard of living and increased overall crop production by small farmers.
